V. Vice-President's Report—Kaine Kerkhoff

July HH at Trademark tomorrow (7/23), masks are required indoor. Large patio available.

New events will be discussed in new business.

VI. Women's Liaison report –

VII. New Business –

- a. Pride run funds.
Motion by Kaine to divide the $2700 equally between the three beneficiaries. (LB Center, AFS and CARE).
Medal cost is already included in club expenses, $2700 is close to normal contribution in previous years.
Bill Peck 2nd . approved by affirmation, no opposes.
- b. PS pride run on 11/6. Hotel prices still low.
- c. Paul Holman suggested we get a simpler version of the logo for shirt.
It will be good for morale and team spirit to have a team shirt, especially in time for coming races such as Surf City, LB marathon and PS pride.
Preferred option by board – collect shirts from members and batch print at a local shop (similar to LBRC). Paul will investigate. Get quotes from local shops and work with Chris on logo version.

Assaf will get the LBRC print shop contact.

- d. Brooks grant – pop-up tent, banners arrived. Assaf, Paul and Mike will help set up on 7/31 Sat run.
- e. Long distance group at 7am, not much of attendance.
- f. Upcoming events to be planned –
 - i. Bonfire – August 28th. Tom is working with Steve S. Plan to have a long run in the morning on run path at Bolsa Chica to save spots and help Steve with saving the fire pit. Need volunteer list for the rest of the day through 4-5pm.
Costs for members will be $10. Need sign up sheet.
 - ii. Progressive dinner – Planning for Sept. 25th, Mike Klyde/Kaine/Tom to look for renting a school bus and or Big Red bus. Theme will be back to school, prom etc. Date is still open, perhaps Oct. 2nd? looking for houses to host.
 - iii. Marathon water station – Bill Peck emailed LB marathon. Waiting.
 - iv. Banquet – Feb. 2022, Tom M. is on the committee.
